

Women's leadership, an opportunity to transform the society (Example of legal carriers)

The importance of women's leadership through the world with a focus in Europe, in France and in developing countries with the example of legal carriers

Commission on the Status of Women 65th Session Parallel Event/visio

March 2021 (to be defined/adjusted according to the organization)
on line:

Organized by National Council of French Women, CECIF, And European Union of Women

Moderator

- Isabelle BLIN - Administrator of UN Women in France, Vice-President of National Council of French Women

Speakers

- Brigitte Polonovski: President of the European Council of International Council of Women, Vice-chairwoman of National Council of French Women, Senior Advisor Human Rights of Women and Girls – Women's leadership in the World
- Pascale Mesnil: European Union of Women President (French section): Women's Leadership in Europe.
- Marie-Claude Bertrand: National Council of French Women President, Past President Soroptimist I. France – Education and training to empower women and develop Women's leadership
- Anne Sireyjol: President of the French Association of Women in legal Carriers – Example of Women's leadership in legal carrier (France).
- Christiane Tricot: European Union of Women President (French section), Vice-President of National Council of French Women and International Vice-President of European Union of Women – Example of Women's leadership in labor functions of legal carrier.
- Ouafae Sananes: Gender Expert, Principal Gender Partnership Specialist at Agence Française de Développement: Example of Women's leadership in developing country (Africa...) – To be validated